WOMAN CUT. -Some excitement was created last night by a report which was circulated to the effect that a col was circulated to the elect that a col-ored man named Wm. Craig had cut-and fatally wounded a colored woman named Estelle Lucas, with whom he had been living, but who had deserted him. The facts in the case, however, showed that while Craig may bave istended to commit murder, the woman's injuries, while serious, are not of a grave nature. The woman appeared at the police station shortly after the assault and applied for a warrant for the arrest of Craig. The woman's face was badly cut on the left side, the cut running from the ear to the nose, exposing the bone. The woman said she was passing an alley in the western part of the city when Craig leaped upon her. Her dress was badly slashed on the left side, showing where an attempt had been made to stab or cut her in the region of the heart. Craig was subsequently arrested and this morning the Mayor committed him for court and was indicted by the grand jury today.

RAILROAD MISSION. - Rev. Mr. Crook, of the Seminary, delivered an interesting discourse on the subject of "Consecration" yesterday afternoon in the Railroad Mission before a large congregation. The congregational singing, which is usually good, was so heartily enjoyed that a request has been made to repeat the entire service at an early date. After service a regu-lar meeting of the "Workers" was held when the chairmen of the several committees reported favorably on their The following officers were Foster, Vice President; Walter Ker-rick, Recording Secretary; Miss Ada Grigg, Financial Secretary; George Windsor, Treasurer; Miss Ada Grigg, Organist, and William Owens, Musical Director. There will be no service on Tuesday evening, owing to the week of prayer in the several churches. An effort is on foot to arrange a concert for the benefit of this mission in the very

ARRESTED —As stated in the Gazette of that da. Richard Thompson, colored, one of the alleged slayers of Town Sergeant Seaton, of Middleburg, on November 25, was arrested in Washington on Saturday. He was brought to this city that night by Sheriff Russell, and Saturday evening was taken to Lass. yesterday evening was taken to Lees-burg, where he will be tried on the charge of murder. He said he was not a party to the murder, but could only be held as a witness. Policeman Atkin-

be held as a witness. Policeman Atkinson escorted Thompson as far as the W: and O "Junction, where he was joined by Sheriff Russell, who afterwards returned to Washington in the hopes of capturing Thompson's brother. Thompson went to Washington three works are from Harner's Farry and his weeks ago from Harper's Ferry and his presence was reported to the local po-lice Saturday by a Mrs. Grant, who formerly lived in Middleburg. The ac-cused made a statement, which he terms 'a full confession." On the night of the murder, he says, he had obtained some whisky in an adjoining county and returned with it to Middlebutg. There he fell into the hands of the sergeant and was taken to the station. After a few hours he was released. His brother Harrison, who had heard of the arrest, sought out the officer and dealt him a mortal wound with a knife. The prisoner claims that his only part in the crime was that of a witness. Harrison Thompson is still at large.
